

34 High St, East Launceston

1880 Character Cottage

Cute character cottage complete with verandah and picket fence, conveniently located within a stones throw of St Georges Square with a café, convenience store, butcher, children’s playground and only a short drive to the city.

The bright and light interior offers 3 bedrooms, 2 living areas, a kitchen / dining room, bathroom and laundry.

There are still some of the original character features evident with feature fireplaces and mantles and of course the front verandah.

To the rear is a carport, courtyard along with extra off street parking to the side of the property.

An ideal property and location for short term rental accommodation or maybe just an easy care place to call home. Either way it represents great buying and is sure to attract interest.
